GOSPEL REFLECTION

They had been toiling all night and had caught nothing. In the name of Christ, they let down the net and it was full of fish. They were fully convinced that their labour would be rewarded however, neither Simon or his friends could draw the net to land. The net is still being drawn, while Christ fills it, and calls to conversion those who, according to the Scripture phrase are in the depths of the sea, that is to say, those who live in the surge and waves of worldly things. (St.Cyril of Alexandria d.444)

If you have volunteered in any way as a reader, minister of the Eucharist, collector, usher, church cleaner, flower, gardening, music, visiting our nursing homes, taking communion to those at home or any other volunteer activity please come along. Clipboards are available for people to place their names for catering purposes in the foyer.
