WINTER APPEAL

I would like to thank the 'Beanie Collective' for their wonderful support, who have already provided over 350 beanies. They are a wonderful and diverse group of parishioners who hand knit or crochet beanies throughout the year, and those who donate bought beanies who quietly go about the business of making sure we have sufficient numbers to start the winter with. The Beanies are distributed via the soup vans and the recipients are very appreciative of the generosity of those who provide these gifts from their own hearts of compassion. To the unsung heroes whom I've christened the 'Beanie Collective', to each of you I say, thank you for your dedication in giving of your time and effort in what can only be 'love of thy neighbour' in the purest form.
Please give generously; if you can't give then please pray for those in need. Kind regards, Angie Boyd President
